

Tolly Ho!

August 2023

Commodore's Corner - Richard Rich

Get Your Raffle Ticket!

We had the following boats at the July cruise - Hawks' Nest, Robin's Nest, Jesse James, Robyn Ann, Fine Hyne, River Bumin', Bareable and Sweet Sue. Each of these boats get 1 ticket for attending the cruise. Last month, the misspelled word was in the article about mosquitos (CDC) Centers for Dissease Control. Note: there were other misspelled words by accident and those that saw them are getting a ticket too! Remember, you attend a cruise - you get a ticket, if you find the obvious misspelled word (FIRST), you get a ticket and if you bring in a new member, you get five tickets. The drawing will take place at the Commodore's brunch and the winner will not have to pay their dues next year.

Upcoming Cruises...

"No Host" Cruise! Dean & Julie are now hosting the September cruise, so we are w/out a host for the St. Helens cruise, August 4-6. Those attending can make the rules of when they want to eat, etc. Note: The Power Squadrons will be there too. Last year, we joined in their games!

Others:

* The Longview Yacht Club has scheduled a cruise down river from August 18 - 27. All are welcome to join. Sue can send you a text that shows our different locations.

What's Up!

NEW!! LOOK FOR AN OBVIOUS MISSPELLED WORD! Look for the obvious misspelled word - get another ticket! The first person to provide the correct answer, will get the ticket! Email Sue with your guess.

Previous Cruise:

Red, White and Blue! Even the cookies reflected the theme AND our logo - the creativity of Susan! Thanks to Roger & Jo Stone who signed up to do their first cruise with the help of Tom & Susan Hoffman!

By Tom Hoffman:

We had a great turn out for the July Cruise. Wonderful weather and wonderful people. Eight boats showed up - Hawks' Nest, Robin's Nest, Fine Hyne, Sweet Sue, Jessie James, River Bumin', Bareable and Robyn Ann.

We enjoyed an appetizer dinner Friday night. Saturday featured the “Saran Wrap” game. It was a hit! It featured a ball of saran wrap with prizes inside - lottery tickets, candy, sunglasses, gift cards, and other items. While one person was unwrapping the ball of Saran Wrap with Oven Mitts, another person was rolling a pair of dice. Once the dice roller rolled 2 sets of doubles it was their turn to unwrap the ball. Lots of fun and laughs. We then had a bingo game with prizes as well. We wrapped up Saturday with hamburgers and hot dogs. An “All American” picnic and potluck side dishes for dinner and a potluck breakfast Sunday morning. Fun was had By All!!!!

Continue info on Mosquitos...

Recently, KGW8 did an article on mosquitos that I found may be hazardous to some of our TNW members!

- Mosquitos prefer blood type "O"!
- Mosquitos are drawn to dark colors...especially red, orange and black!

Hmmm..haven't I seen these colors on some of the chairs on the docks???

Trips by our members:

Ilwaco, WA Adventure June 22 - 29, 2023 By Lavonne Hamilton

Robin & Lavonne Hamilton and Nic & Mary Hawken started this adventure by meeting in Cathlamet, WA. Cathlamet is a cute little town and the brewery has a new location for their beer and ciders, it's right on the waterfront (the original building is still near the marina but they use it for making their beer only). So the 5 of us (includes Kody) went to the new location. We also had pizza at the pizza place and ate it on the Hawken's boat.

Then onto Ilwaco the next day June 23. That evening we ate at the Salt Pub and had a wonderful dinner, they also make awesome margaritas. Saturday June 24th, we took a long hike to North Head Lighthouse and it ended up being an 8 mile round trip hike. We were all tired and hungry after so we ate at the Helm Hotel and Waterline Pub and had another great dinner. On Sunday June 25th we were ready to do more walking so headed to the beach and this was a 6 mile round trip hike. We had such fantastic weather and the view was awesome! We had planned to go to the Art Walk at the Port of Ilwaco, but came back from the hike, had lunch and ended up being too late to go. I thought the Art Walk would last longer - but I was wrong. Later on that night we met on the Hawken's boat to visit and have snacks. On Monday June 26th Nic & Mary left to head to Cathlamet and who knows where after (that is the nice thing about being retired). The Hamilton's stayed in Ilwaco and we went on another long walk (but not as long as when we were with Nic & Mary). Tuesday June 27th we explored Ilwaco and found 3 more sandwich places to eat so we had lunch at the newest one and it was a fantastic lunch. We left Ilwaco Wednesday June 28th and headed to Kalama WA to visit our friend Donna. We all went to dinner, then the next morning Donna picked us to go out to breakfast.

While in Ilwaco we ran into several friends we have made over the years, including Carla (the owner of the bookstore who just sold it to her niece), Don Nesbit (the artist), Linda who used to live on her boat (Rumrunner), and two fisherman Rob & Troy. It was fun seeing everyone.

Ilwaco is a nice peaceful place to visit and has a lot of walking trails. We highly recommend you come next time and we are so glad Nic & Mary came with us this time, we had a blast with them.

CRYA General Meeting
July 18, 2023
Zoom Meeting
By Bruce Chambers
